

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

CENTER FOR TRAUMA CARE IN SCHOOLS Master's Level Mental Health Clinician / Bilingual Spanish

We are seeking a clinically skilled Master's level clinician to work in an innovative collaboration to provide clinical and support services to Unaccompanied Children (UCs) and their foster families/sponsors. Services to be provided in partnership with Boston-area schools and Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) subcontracting agencies supporting unaccompanied children.

Center for Trauma Care in Schools (CTCS) is a project of the Alliance for Inclusion and Prevention (AIP), a non-profit children's mental health agency in Boston, MA. For more information on AIP and CTCS, please visit: www.aipinc.org.

Position description:

- Provide clinical screening and culturally-informed group treatment to UCs with trauma and/or mental health, behavioral, psychosocial, or substance use concerns in evidence-based treatments (EBTs) in school and/or community settings. Training in screening and group EBTs will be provided by AIP.
- Provide care management for UCs and other refugee and immigrant children their sponsor families, linking them to local resources
- Provide culturally and developmentally informed training to school staff and foster/sponsor parents in understanding the trauma and adjustment needs of UCs and other professional staff
- Position includes regular team collaboration with AIP and staff at schools and/or in the community
- Become a leader/trainer in relevant evidence-based treatments for childhood trauma

Qualifications:

- Master's degree or Doctorate in a clinical mental health discipline
- Requires spoken and written fluency in Spanish

Preferred:

- Familiarity (bicultural preferred) with immigrants from Northern Triangle countries of Central America
- Knowledge about impact of acculturation trauma on newcomer children/youth and families
- Licensure in relevant discipline is preferred, but not required

Excellent compensation and full benefits included. Search will continue until position is filled.

A cover letter is required.

Please send Cover Letter and Resume to:

Dr. Lisa Baron, Project Director, AIP Center for Trauma Care in Schools

lbaron@aipinc.org